

ARTS AND HERITAGE YOUTH LEADER

VOYCE – Voices Of Youth Creating Empowerment

Age Range: 16-21 (or up to 25 with SEND)

Division: Young Tower Hamlets

Where: Youth Clubs, the Town Hall

Commitment: Part-time, voluntary (includes free training, workshops & project time)

Duration: 12 weeks – around 3 hours a week

What's this role about?

Love being creative? Passionate about history, stories, or art? This is your chance to take the lead and make your voice heard.

As an Arts & Heritage Youth Leader, you'll create, design, and deliver your own creative project — whether that's an exhibition, event, street art, history project, campaign, or anything in between! You'll work with youth centres, and the town hall to showcase what matters to you and celebrate the people, culture, and history around you.

Whether you're a budding artist, a future activist, or just curious to try something new – this programme is all about your ideas, your creativity, your leadership

What You'll Do:

- Design and lead your own creative or heritage project
- Take part in fun, practical workshops

- Shadow youth and arts professionals
- Speak up for young people in culture and heritage spaces
- Plan events that bring people together

Who We're Looking For:

- Aged 16–21 (or up to 25 with SEND)
- Energetic, positive, and ready to lead
- No experience needed — just passion and commitment!

You'll Gain:

- Creative, leadership, and teamwork skills
- New connections and confidence
- 1-to-1 support
- Project management experience
- Working with younger peers
