Duration: 12 weeks – 3 hours each week

What's this role about?

Passionate about making a difference?

Want your voice to be heard?

As a Social Action Leader you can lead your own project, campaign, or youth-led session. Tackle big issues like mental health, online safety or put on creative activities like talent shows, open mics or workshops. You'll work with youth centres and council staff to bring people together, raise awareness and create change. Similarly you can deliver an activity or event that brings people together e.g organising a talent show.

What You'll Do:

- Design and lead your own social action project, event, or campaign
- Take part in workshops with guest speakers and youth professionals
- Shadow staff and see how change happens behind the scenes
- Plan and deliver an activity or awareness

event in your community

- Speak up for young people and promote inclusion and community

Who We're Looking For:

- Aged 16–21 (or up to 25 with SEND)
- Passionate, open-minded, and ready to take action
- No experience needed — just commitment and a drive to make change!

You'll Gain:

- Creative, leadership, and teamwork skills
- New connections and confidence
- 1-to-1 support
- Project management experience
- Working with younger peers
